CALDWELL BLAMED FOR BROWNS' VICTORY

His Wild Pitch Lets the Winning Run Sift Across Plate After McHale Quits.

St. Louis, June 13.-Baseball in all its varying phases was seen here this afternoon, when the St. Louis Browns, rallying gamely in the closing innings of the game, nosed out the New York Yankees in the 5 to 4, and a wild pitch by Ray Caldwell failed to stop the Red Sox, who defeated Charles H. Marty McHale got along for six innings unscathed, but he had a relapse in the seventh. Immediately the Browns got after him. When two men were on the bases Chance sent Caldwell in to pitch. The Browns meanwhile renewed ac- Collins. quaintance with the delivery of Caldwell.

Howard, the first man who faced Caldwell, singled, scoring Walker and Shotion, who got on when McHale was in the box. Howard took second on the throw to the plate. Lavin ran for him and went to third on an infield out, to score on a The Yankees started bravely and got three runs in the opening frame. Maisel coubled and took third on Austin's error on a tap by Truesdale. Peckinpaugh flied to C. Walker, scoring Malsel, and after Hartzell popped out "Doc" Cook drove a home run into the right field stand. In the second inning singles by Williams and Truesdale and an error gave the Yankees their final count. Maisel was injured sliding into third in ## Athletics Beat Out Naps in Tyler. Hard Hitting Battle.

Cleveland, June 13.-Two errors by Olson paved the way to-day for the victory of Philadelphia over Cleveland by a score of 10 to 8, in the final game of the series here. Shawkey and Hagerman, who started to pitch, were not effective. Plank went into the game in the sixth and struck out Lelivelt with the bases Joe Jackson was out of the Cleveland lineup for the first time this year. He is said to have a bad knee, but his playing has not been good for weeks. Chapman, who broke his leg three months ago, b broke in as a pinch hitter.

Wilbert Robinson is a worried man, Charles H. Ebbets is another worried man. Out in the wilds of Flatbush there are thousands of worried men. Wilbert Robinson is losing weight. He can afford it. ford it. No translation of the above lines

For it was a slesta and not a ball game, as advertised, for all those present, except the Cardinals from Heat Town-on-the-Mississippi. They kept awake through it all, as the score, which was 6 to 0 in their favor, most convincingly testifies. Incidentally, the alert visitors had the satisfaction of carrying away in their bat bag a whole series of four games and moved into third place in the pennant race.

There are four names that deserve special mention in connection with the nap enjoyed or otherwise for six innings by the 5,600 who occupied berths in Ebbets stadium. They are "Rip Van Winkle" Griner, who did the twirling for the St. Louis men, throwing such a hypnotic spell over his oppenents that they made only five hits; "Red" Smith, who is making a specialty these days of wild throws to Jake Daubert's domain: Lew McCarty, who distinguished himself yesterday by the graceful manner in which he failed to cut down the daring ones who pilfered bases at will, and Raleigh Aitchison, who showed exceptional ability in hurling bunted balls among the boxholders south-

St. Louis Has Easy Time and Wilson laid down a bunt, which Aitchison forwarded to Stengel out in right field, allowing Miller to stroll across the plate. Cutshaw threw out Griner, but Huggins sped to first on an infield bingle, and while Beck was scoring went on to second as a result of another weird toss of Altchison. Smith helped the good cause along by ENOUGH FOR TIGERS McCarty Also Aids Visitors to making a beautiful fumble of Magee's grounder. McCarty then showed how no to squash a double steal by a skyscraping throw to Cutshaw. Huggins scored on the error. Magee then dashed into third as the outcome of another crazy heave by the same McCarty. Cather, the ninth man up in the inning, received the wild acclaim of the disgusted fans when he stuck out his bat to end the agony and lofted an easy fly to Cutshaw. The Cardinals, as it happened, did not need these five runs, for they had made the one sufficient to win in the third inning.

The efforts of the Superbas to overcome the lead against them were most pathetic. Schmutz was called upon after the fatal seventh to keep the visitors quiet. He had no difficulty in doing so, for the Cardinals were completely fagged out. Cincinnati will make its first visit to Flatbush to-morrow. George Sperl, of Brooklyn, surprised a speedy field in the feature race at the Brighton Beach Motordrome last nighta ten-mile motorcyle race-by leading the pack for the entire distance and, incidentally, cracking the track record of 7:48, made by Arthur Chapple last year. The winner's time was 7:46 2-5.

RICE'S LAUNCH CRIPPLED Breaks Down Before Afternoon

Practice Row.

(From a Staff Correspondent of The Tribune.)

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 12.—Jim Rice had the Columbia crews up the river in the morning, but was unable to get out with them in the afternoon as his coach-[From a Staff Correspondent of The Tribune.] 3. Worcester English High 1-5, Fairhaven | the morning, but was unable to get out with them in the afternoon as his coaching launch broke down and was not ready for work in time for the afternoon spin. Wisconsin's 'varsity eight came up from its quarters to the foot of the course for the first time this afternoon, but the river > the contemplated time trial. Owing to the prevalence of boils throughout the squad, Coach Vivian Nickalls of the Pennsylvania eights broke all precedents here to-day when he gave his crews a complete rest from afternoon practice. As a result the entire Quaker squad came over to Poughkeepsie in the afternoon to patronize art in the shape of the "movies."

Nickalls really lost nothing by this, as the water was so rough when Syracuse and Cornell took to it this evening that it was all but impossible to make headway. The Syracuse junior eight met with an accident as it was, when Coxswain Smith ran his shell into a floating log. Fortunately there were no injuries to the boat further than the removal of some polish, but the fin was bent and had to be taken off for repairs.

All of the hard work done to-day was accomplished in the morning, when Cornell and Syracuse got in time trials with their ditions than at any time so far during their stay. Courtney's eight rowed only twenty-seven strokes over the course, but the display of speed and perfect watermanship at this clip was a great improvement over anything seen here this year. Syracuse hit the pace up to 32 and 34 in its trial, but did not show to the same advantage as Cornell, though there is more physical power in the boat.

RACING ON LOWER BAY New York Canoe Club Has Big Fleet for Regatta. In a twelve-knot breeze from the south

that increased as the afternoon advanced, the lower Bay racing flotilla sailed an interesting regatta under the direction of the New York Canoe Club. The start and the finish line was off the Atlantic Yacht Club. In addition to sailing for cups offered by the canoemen, the yachtsmen also sailed for Gravesend Bay championship points.
